WHEELING, W. VA., SEPTEMBER II, 1881.

Young men about to vote for the first time ought to make very sure that they do not begin wrong. A man's party connection is a matter of moment to him, and in this as in other things of importance ke this as in other things of importance he owes it to himself to get a good start. Before he joins a party he ought to in quire whether it has any principles, and if so, what they are. He should ascertain its methods, to know whether they are such as an honest young man can aplook into its know whether it has been helpful to the country, progressive or obstructive. He should concern himself about the men whom the party trusts with places of honor and profit, to know what ts personal standards are. And he should know whether the party is marshalled by leaders of its own choosing or manipulated and driven by men whom it has not the rage to shake off.

At this time a very instructive illustration of these points will be found in the Democratic party, which is almost all that a great political organization ought not to be. It has a history, but no Democrat can recall it with pride. In the hour of the country's peril it either went to the front on the wrong side, or hung back and shot in the rear. It has opposed all the great and all the small reforms of its time. It stood by slavery and opposed emancipation. At a critical moment, and for an against the greenbacks, which were neces-

Michael Davitt is writing a parody of "The Pilgrim's Progress," to be called "The Goal Journey." Emn.a Thursby has been offered $10,000 a year to sing in the choir of St. Bartholomew's church, New York. Mrs. Frank Leslie is not likely, it is said, but she will bring back a pair of $25,000 The Judge.

English Methodists give $1,000,000 a year o home missions. According to a recent census the population of Egypt is 6,798,200. A Waldo, Ga., man killed thirty rattle snakes at one killing the other day.

It has just cost an English pedagogue $75 for rapping a pupil's knuckles with a hazel stick." The finest clay for the manufacture o

The three-card monte men are trying a new amusement during vacation.
One of them chats with the crowd on the plazza and bets freely on the weight of the strangers that use the hotel scales. At last his friend appears encased in an invisible lead jacket. He looks lean, the crowd bets freely, and is surprised to find itself out of pocket.

The annual review of the Charleston, S.

The annual review of the Charleston, S. C., News and Courier shows a business o C., News and Courier shows a business of $75,000,000 during the past year. Local manufacturers employed 650 persons, the value of their products being over $3,250,000. The exports of phosphate were 359,000 tons, the largest known. The products of the cotton mills in the State reached $6,000,000.

reached $6,000,000.

Sir Thomas Wade, after a residence of upwards of twenty years in Peking, believes its population to be less than half a million; and a French physician, who has made systematic observations, estimates it at 400,000. Yet the geography books give it 3,000,000. At the junction of the Hanriver with the Yangtree are two cities, Hanyang-fu and Wu-chang-fu, and an enormous perpetual fair, Hankow. The population of these has been set down at $,000,000, but from a visit to the spot Sir T. Wade estimates it at about half a million.

ON THE SLAVE COAST.

Recent Rescue of a Cargo of Stolen Men Women and Children.

An officer on board the sailing schoone evil purpose, it declared the war for the Undine, Lieut, and Commauder Henry Union a failure. In time of war it was M'A. Cutfield, employed in suppressing the slave trade in the Mozambique chansary to the prosecution of the war. In nel, writing under date of July 16th, says sary to the prosecution of the war. In the winning a lively time, I can assure tion of specie payments, which was necestion of species payments, which was necestion of species payments, which was necessary to the prosecution of the war. sary to the stability of trade and the main- wretches on board, eighty of them women

"We are having a lively time, I can assure too of specie payments, which was necessary to the stability of trade and the maintenance of the public faith and credit. It is against a tariff for the protection of home industries against the destructive competition of other lands. It is against national aid for free schools, though there are State's which are weighted with illiteracy, for which the Democratic party is responsible. In this day it admits that the war was not a failure; that emancipation was right; that greenbacks were necessary in time of war; that resumption was necessary in time of war; that resumption was necessary in time of peace. It will admit more as it grows older. The Democracy is the campfollower of our politics. But it originates nothing that is for the welfare and glory of the country.

Just now the interested attention of men of all parties is drawn to Ohio and New York. See what a mess they have of it in Ohio! In the two moet populous counties, far apart, the Democratic party cannot hold a convention without disgusting the honest men of the party. Melean, beginning in Hamilton county, is laying his lines to boes the State in the interest of the mere money power of the party. The same thing on a less pretentious scale is seen in Cuyahoga county.

In the great State of New York, so important in a Presidential campaign, John Kelly, a vulgar, arrogant, conscienceles fellow, has his party by the throat and it cannot budge without his leave. The great Tilden must bend or break before him, for Kelly is brandishing with savage ferocity the club of Tanmany, which has before seen used with deadly effect on the party. The young man who is asked to join such a party ought to think twice before he votes, and having thought he ought to vote against that party. In politics it is well for a young man, no less than for an old man to pick his company.

three times as many if we had some more boats and a steam cutter, as there is not a shadow of doubt that large numbers are ran here every year, and especially about this time. Unfortunately the master gave us the slip, though we were the whole night looking for him on shore. I think he left some more on shore who could not be found, but we may pick them up on our return. The boat captured 140, and we hope eventually to get twenty-two snore, so that twenty four have died or been sold somewhere else."

While Bourbonism is being ventilated, we will just say that in June, 1882, we heard a member of the Board of Regents say that at that time they would have conferred on D. B. Lucas the degree LL. D., but if they did so they would have been compelled to confer a D. D. on J. R. Thompson, ex-President of the University, and that they would not do.

Hide-bound Bourbonism.

Can't Dodge the "Slate,"

Some of the faithful of the Democracy may kick a little, for a while, but it's no use, when the music is playing you must all dance. It is remembered that a caucus at Bannum's Hotel, in Baltimore, hatched out John F. Kenna for the U.S. Senate.
